ACCOMMODATION

Many hotels are offering special rates to ANC 2021 participants. From the Double Tree by Hilton Perth Waterfront situated in the heart of Elizabeth Quay, to the historic Melbourne Hotel and the Adina Apartments close to the Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre (PCEC), there is a range of accommodation types to suit everyone. However, be aware that from time to time these hotels offer special deals, so we suggest you also check these out. Information on participating hotels and the special links or codes for ANC 2021 are provided below. Distances to the PCEC are noted. Please see the Transport section for free and frequent transport to and from the hotels and the PCEC.

The Melbourne Hotel

700m from the PCEC 33 Milligan St, Perth 08 9320 333

From the corner of Hay and Milligan Street in the heart of Perth city, The Melbourne Hotel has been part of the local character and culture since 1897. Fusing old-world elegance with modern, stateof-the-art amenities, a stay at The Melbourne Hotel promises a fascinating glimpse into Perth's dynamic heritage. Opt for the aptly named Heritage Rooms, each a one-of-a-kind space with distinct, original design elements, or experience a contemporary room with sophisticated and modern architecture

Just as every room has a story to tell, so do the five dining offerings. Savour an international array of flavours, from classic Australian favourites to authentic Asian cuisine. Relax in the 'Old Melbourne' pub-styled warmth of De Baun & Co, pick up a decadent Japanese cream bun from Hattendo, sample sophisticated chef-driven Japanese and Cantonese specialities at Keisuke and Grand Orient, or watch the city skyline sparkle to life with a cocktail at Aurora Rooftop Bar.
